Security Industry Institute

The Security Industry Institute (SII) is jointly established by Temasek Polytechnic and Singapore Workforce Development Agency. It was set up in September 2007 to offer nationally recognised and comprehensive professional security training and placement for security personnel. SII, a national Continuing Education and Training Institution for the security workforce, aims to enhance the security industry's professional image, quality of training, operating standards and employability of the workforce through various skills upgrading initiatives.

SII offers three levels of Security WSQ qualification and conducts customised training programmes for organisations. The levels of Security WSQ offered are:-

1. WSQ - Certificate in Security Operations
2. WSQ - Advanced Certificate in Security Supervision
3. WSQ - Diploma in Security Management

SII will also serve as a career centre to partner with industry players and provide guidance on career and skills upgrading for job seekers and workers in the security industry.
