FREE! REGISTRATION

Come and witness the first ever AIIIC webinar competition jointly organised by WAS-APC and Aquaculture Innovation Centre, Singapore where students from polytechnics, universities and other institutes in the region pit their creative ideas on potential aquaculture solutions through live streaming.

Only registered webinar attendees will vote on the top presentations per category (polytechnic and universities) based on criteria set by the AIIIC Committee comprising academicians, researchers and industry players from the region.

For those keen to become student members of WAS, please apply at <https://www.was.org/meeting/MemberData/SelectType>

If you require further information, please contact our WAS-APC Executive, at apcsec@was.org
