STUDENT RESEARCH AWARDS 2020

On 31 October 2020, three groups of PSY students swept the top three awards in the Diploma category of the Singapore Psychological Society's Student Research Awards (SRA) 2020. With these awards, PSY students have clinched top awards in the SRA for the last five consecutive years.

The seventh annual Psychology Studies (PSY) Student Conference took place on 19 February 2021. Held online fully, this conference showcased student research projects, highlighted the diploma's capability to industry partners, as well as provided an avenue to engage PSY's alumni.
